Application Instructions

Email this completed form and any required attachments to scholarships@thefortyouthcentre.com.

All applications must include three letters of reference (see next page)

Creative Arts: Please include three examples of original work. School projects do not count as original work but can be included as additional examples.

Academic Achievement: Please include your most recent transcripts for the past three years. This can include high school or post-secondary. You must also include a 500-word essay on the importance of education for young adults. What have you done with your education? Where are you going with it?

Community Service: Your letters of reference must come from organizers of volunteer experiences you have participated in. Volunteer opportunities used to complete community service hours do not count towards this program. Please include a 500-word essay on the importance of giving back to your community and what you learned from the experience. Please also include at least one photo of you volunteering at an event.
